Award-winning country cottages – a perfect location to explore South Devon

Aish Cross House

Scandinavian barbecue lodge

Open plan lounge/dining area

Pippa and Kate

In the peaceful hamlet of Aish, these three award-winning, luxurious cottages have been lovingly converted to very high standards. The perfect location to relax, and explore South Devon.

The cottages adjoin Aish Cross House, a regency country house, a mile away from the riverside village of Stoke Gabriel on the banks of the River Dart – the medieval town of Totnes is a five minute drive. The surrounding countryside is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The area offers many attractions including five National Trust/English Heritage properties nearby – Greenway, the holiday home of Agatha Christie is just 6 miles away. There are excellent beaches in nearby Torbay and the South Hams. The coastline offers some stunning walks.

The Coach House Sleeps 2-4 (M1 Accredited).

Beautiful Stoke Gabriel

The Coach House Family Sleeps 2-6. The Hayloft and The Stable both sleep 2-4.

The cottages have their own unique appeal, two with conservatories. Kitchens are well equipped including dishwasher, fridge/freezer, microwave. Being adjoining cottages these are ideal for individual or family/reunion group lettings. There is a communal laundry room.

Outside there is a large 'Orchard Garden' for the exclusive enjoyment and relaxation of our guests. Sun loungers, gazebo, barbecues, swings, trampoline, croquet and other garden games are provided. There is also a separate Island Garden across the lane for those seeking solitude to just enjoy the wonderful views across the countryside towards the River Dart – and to add to this we have a luxury Scandinavian barbecue lodge, seating up to 15, which is great fun for entertaining.

We are pet friendly too!
