Enjoy an amazing family holiday on the spectacular North Cornwall coast, in beautiful converted barns on our small farm. Plenty of space to relax and lots to do nearby.

Ideal location

Set in a peaceful rural hamlet in rolling countryside close to the Cornwall/Devon border, West Woolley Farm is easy to get to and an ideal base to explore the many attractions of Cornwall and Devon.

Family friendly

Six cottages sleeping from two to six, with bags of character, including stone walls, beamed ceilings, comfortable beds and all the toddler and baby equipment you may need. Join us for animal feeding every day and meet the pigs and sheep, collect eggs and play with our pygmy goats. There's also a sports barn where you'll find basketball, table tennis and a mini climbing wall.

Fantastic beaches

A wide choice of beaches within 15-30 minutes offer endless sand, Atlantic breakers for surfing (borrow our wet suits and body boards) and secluded coves for rock-pooling and building sandcastles.

Stunning clifftop walks

The famous South West Coast Path is only a couple of miles away with stunning clifftop walks, incredible views and the chance to spot dolphins and seals.

Lots to do nearby

Pretty fishing villages, historic houses, glorious gardens, cycling trails and award winning family attractions are all nearby. In the evenings, eat in excellent local pubs, enjoy fish and chips by the sea or simply relax back at the farm admiring the breath-taking sunsets and starry night skies.

Come and see what makes this part of Cornwall so special.
