Pembrokeshire in style

The Lodge at East Jordeston

Comfortable style

Spacious, chalet style bedrooms

Play park fun

Fun on the beach

In idyllic, peaceful countryside, 3 miles from Tenby, the 16th century former farm of East Jordeston offers a cluster of luxury, award-winning cottages in a chic, contemporary style.

Designed with architectural flair and sitting comfortably in landscaped grounds, the cottages, sleeping from 2 to 8 guests, have a clean cut, Scandinavian influence. They offer unique interesting features, open plan sociable living spaces, top quality furnishings and fittings and an atmosphere of comfort, peace and relaxation.

There are woodburners, toasty warm floors with underfloor heating and airy, chalet style bedrooms with boarded walls painted in calming colours. Guests may even find a soft, snug blanket on the sumptuous beds, woven from the wool of the resident flock of rare breed Jacob sheep.

Five cottages offer the luxury of their own private Finnish saunas, some have delightful sun rooms and all have private terraces with panoramic views over rolling fields.

East Jordeston is an ideal base from which to discover the delights of Pembrokeshire. Award-winning, golden sandy beaches like Barafundle and Broad Haven South and the picturesque harbour town of Tenby are nearby, with some of the most dramatic scenery of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park only a few miles away.

Adventure seekers can try coasteering, surfing and other water sports, whilst families will love the popular attractions of Folly Farm and the Wildlife Park, just minutes away. Within five miles, three wonderful castles are waiting to be explored, or if you prefer, simply slow down and unwind to the relaxed pace of life and enjoy Pembrokeshire's peace and tranquillity.
