Welcome to our seven beautifully restored 5 Star Gold Award cottages.

Our accommodation includes WiFi, widescreen TVs, dishwashers, quality furnishings and luxurious linen, creating a relaxing holiday home.

The cottages are situated in peaceful Duchy farmland and only a short stroll through country lanes from the village of Chapel Amble where you will find our local pub and restaurant, village shop and post office.

A short drive away you will find Polzeath, Rock and Daymer Bay perfect for beach lovers, sailors and surfers. Golf can be played at the many superb golf courses in the area. Bikes can be hired for rides along the Camel Trail to the pretty fishing port of Padstow with its many restaurants to choose from, including Rick Stein's famous Seafood restaurant. Visit Port Isaac with its winding streets and pretty harbour, you may even see Doc Martin ...

Children are welcome and pets accepted in some cottages.
