5 Star Gold Award-winning cottages in Cheshire's undiscovered Peak District

Kerridge End Holiday Cottages

Stables spa bathroom

Kerridge Ridge to Manchester

Award-winning luxurious barn conversions on the idyllic western edge of the Peak District National Park, located in the grounds of a Grade II listed gentleman's residence in Rainow village.

Come and enjoy the peaks and plains of Cheshire!

Rainow is blessed with a massive network of footpaths, from quiet rambles, to tough hillwalking and rugged moors; including the famous Gritstone Trail.

The beautiful Peak Park, several pretty villages and market towns with fine pubs, shops and restaurants are on the doorstep. Historic Chester, Cheshire's 'magnificent seven' National Trust properties, Alton Towers and Legoland Discovery are all within easy driving distance.

Take a short train journey from Macclesfield to Manchester with its many galleries, museums and theatres.

The Hayloft sleeps 6. This spacious imaginative luxury conversion, with large lounge and exposed beams, has three en suite bedrooms; one with bath and steam shower; another equipped as a wet room with disabled facilities. The well-equipped kitchen opens to the dining room. The property apart from one bedroom is on one level.

The Coach House sleeps 4. The cottage is a beautiful, luxurious conversion of the old coach house. In addition to the lounge and separate dining room there is a well-equipped breakfasting kitchen. One twin-bedded room with dressing area, one double bedroom with en suite facilities and a family bathroom.

The Stables sleeps 2. A romantic conversion of Grade II listed stables into a luxuriously appointed ground floor apartment, superbly equipped with a double steam shower and jet spa bath. The lounge/dining/kitchen area is open plan.
