Award-winning country cottages – a perfect location to explore South Devon

The orchard garden

Aish Cross Holiday Cottages

The Stable bedroom

In the peaceful hamlet of Aish, these three award-winning, luxurious cottages have been lovingly converted to very high standards. The perfect location to relax, and explore South Devon.

The cottages adjoin Aish Cross House, a regency country house, a mile away from the riverside village of Stoke Gabriel on the banks of the River Dart – medieval town of Totnes is a five minute drive. The surrounding countryside is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The area offers many attractions including five National Trust/English Heritage properties nearby – Greenway, the holiday home of Agatha Christie is just 6 miles away. There are excellent beaches in nearby Torbay and the South Hams. The coastline offers some stunning walks. The cottages have their own unique appeal, two with conservatories. All are beautifully furnished to a high standard.

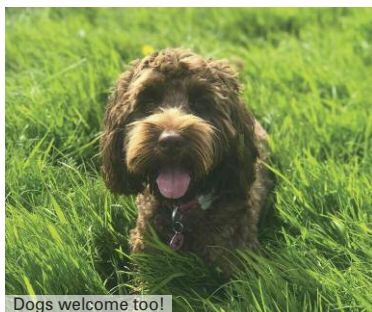

Kitchens are well equipped including dishwasher, fridge/freezer, microwave. There is a communal laundry room. Lovely lawned orchard with croquet, swings/trampoline, and ample parking.

The Coach House. M1 Accredited mobility status. With two large double/twin bedded rooms and private bathrooms.

The Coach House Family. Accommodation is as described above but with a third double/twin bedded room, and en suite shower/toilet facilities with access through one of the bedrooms to form a family suite.

The Stable. Two bedrooms, the larger has a double bed, and the smaller has the option of double or single beds. There is a separate bathroom (bath/shower/toilet).

The Hayloft. Offers spacious accommodation with a double bedroom, and a smaller double/twin bedroom. Bathroom with jet bath and separate shower.

Dogs welcome too!
