Our award-winning cottages are located in the idyllic Blackdown Hills; only 20 minutes from the Jurassic Coast where you can find some of Britain's best family beaches.

Our family-run cottages are light, modern and airy but retain traditional character, with stylish décor and cosy woodburners. Each cottage comfortably sleeps 6 guests in three en suite bedrooms (12 if both cottages are rented together). Both cottages are extremely well equipped with every need catered for so you can start enjoying your holiday the moment you arrive.

The secluded and peaceful private grounds, with uninterrupted views, provide abundant space for children to play, run free and have fun on our swings and games area. We provide a range of outdoor sporting equipment for family games; the village tennis courts are within walking distance.

We are only a 20 minute drive away from some of Britain's most popular beaches – Sidmouth, Lyme Regis, Branscombe and Beer. Guests can also enjoy fine dining or a cookery course locally at Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall's River Cottage. There are beautiful walks locally, on Dartmoor, Exmoor or along the South West Coast Path overlooking the magnificent Jurassic Coast, or why not bring your bikes and cycle the 26 mile Exe Estuary Trail?

The pretty village of Upottery is an 8 minute walk away where a traditional pub serves good family meals. Exeter, the exciting new hub of the South West with its great shopping, restaurants and museums is a 20 minute drive away.

A welcome pack with locally sourced, award-winning treats awaits you on your arrival!
