Part of an ancient, peaceful Cornish hamlet and set in wonderful countryside, Higher Menadew has a lovely, tranquil setting where you can really refresh, relax and unwind.

Perfect for an enjoyable, easy and memorable getaway, we have seven super country cottages, excellent facilities, and outstanding local attractions including the Eden Project, Lost Gardens of Heligan, and both coasts.

Our cottages are stylish, comfortable and superbly equipped; simply a wonderful home for your holiday. All have exposed beams, oak kitchens, comfortable sofas and beds, pure cotton linen, full central heating, and nursery equipment for our younger guests on request.

We have excellent facilities to keep guests of all ages happy, including our superb indoor heated swimming pool. The games room has table tennis, table football, air hockey and a dedicated area for fives and under. There are grassed play areas, outdoor play equipment, a large trampoline and friendly farm animals to meet if you wish. You can enjoy starry skies at night too.

There are fantastic and easy to get to attractions and activities all around us, including: the stunning North and South coast with beautiful beaches; picturesque fishing villages such as Charlestown, Fowey, Mevagissey and Padstow; Bodmin Moor; glorious gardens including the Eden Project, Heligan and Lanhydrock; country houses and castles; World Heritage Sites; Poldark series locations; family adventure parks; cycling the Camel Trail; golf; walking; and a wide variety of good restaurants.

Food4myholiday, Tesco, Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Asda all deliver.

Parents and couples enjoy the comfort, space and tranquility; families appreciate how child friendly we are.
