Discover Roundhouse Barns – stunningly converted 17th century Cornish stone barns. Located in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty on the beautiful Roseland Peninsula.

Our multi-award winning, refurbished barns offer every creature comfort from roll top baths, high pressure showers and super king-size beds to designer kitchens and spacious lounges with superfast WiFi. We are surrounded by National Trust land and overlooked by nothing other than rolling hills. From the top of our winding driveway, there are magnificent views across the Fal estuary towards Loe Beach, Mylor and Falmouth.

From our barns you can walk to the beautiful St Just in Roseland church and the chic fishing village of St Mawes; from there you can take a passenger ferry to Falmouth or Truro. You can also stroll along the coastal path from St Anthony's Head to Portscatho to enjoy some of the Roseland's finest coastal scenery. You may even see seals, dolphins and basking sharks. The uncrowded sandy beaches at Towan, Porthcurnick and Pendower offer sheltered safe swimming.

We're only a short car ride from The Eden Project, The Lost Gardens of Heligan and The Helford River. Within an hour, you can be in St Ives, Padstow, St Michael's Mount or the Minack Theatre using the King Harry car ferry.

Foodies will love the area. We've everything from a Michelin starred restaurant three miles away to welcoming local pubs, restaurants, pop up cafés and farm shops serving up the freshest local produce all year round.

Come and share the peace and tranquillity at our exclusively for couples hideaway.
