Rural farm location close to the Monsal Trail, Chatsworth and Bakewell

Derwent Cottage

Derwent sitting room

Sheepwash Bridge, Ashford

Churchdale Farm is a wonderful central Peak District holiday base, 2 miles from Bakewell, 3 minutes' walk to the famous Monsal Trail and a leisurely stroll through fields to Ashford-in-the-Water.

Wake up to the sounds of the countryside. Leave your car and walk or cycle on the level, wild flower strewn Monsal Trail and investigate the solar lit tunnels. Walk to the village and buy your provisions at the Ashford village shop and admire the picturesque "Sheepwash Bridge", or quench your thirst at one of the pubs. The area is a treasure trove of history, beauty and gastro experiences. Within a 10 minute drive are Chatsworth and Haddon Hall. The attractive market town of Bakewell offers a wide variety of shops, pubs and restaurants.

The three 5 Star Gold Award cottages have been thoughtfully converted from old farm buildings, retaining charming beams and natural stone to provide quality spacious accommodation. The sitting rooms have woodburning stoves. The kitchens are fully equipped with dishwashers, microwaves, washing machines, etc. Many guests return year after year.

Wye (2), a large romantic hideaway for 2 with king-size bed, large newly fitted bathroom, sitting room and fitted kitchen.

Dove (3), a charming former milking parlour, has a cosy sitting room with exposed stonework, kitchen, double bedroom with king-size bed, a large single bedroom and bathroom.

Derwent (4), ideal for two couples: an upside down cottage with an upstairs kitchen, and a large beamed sitting room. Downstairs, double bedroom with newly fitted en suite bathroom, twin-bedded room and further bathroom.
