Mill Laine Barns are self-catering rural holiday cottages to rent near Lewes. Discover the breathtaking natural beauty of the South Downs in Sussex.

Enjoy the flexibility and comfort of a self-catering holiday cottage located near to every amenity, places of interest, attractions and stunning walks on the South Downs Way, Ouse Valley Way, Meridian Way and coastal beaches.

The 18th century Grade II listed farmstead is tastefully and sympathetically converted into four top quality cottages, the two largest, The Barn and Granary, each sleeping six people. The Stables cottage can accommodate four and The Dairy two people. The Dairy and Stables can be combined into one – popular with visitors from more than one family.

Each cottage is equipped to a high standard with every modern convenience, wool carpets, quarry tiles, woodburning stoves, washing machines and fully inclusive gas central heating, towels and linen. The three largest cottages have dishwashers and range cookers. The Dairy has a kitchen/living room, each cottage is unique, with beautiful exposed oak beams and original features.

Cots and booster highchairs are available. Free WiFi in all cottages.

Mill Laine is a 500 acre working farm producing arable crops, Southdown sheep, Sussex cattle and Welsh cobs, these can often be seen around the cottages with their offspring.

Among numerous local attractions, Glyndebourne Opera House, Brighton, the Royal Pavilion, Lewes Castle, Drusillas Zoo, Bluebell Railway, and gardens including Nymans, Bateman's.

Excellent pub with delicious food 150 yards. Our farm shop is just 300 yards away, selling beef, lamb and pork plus other produce from our farm.
