Park Farm offers five comfortable cottages, each with woodburning stoves, character, privacy and fantastic views, in the small hamlet of Mangersbury within a short walking distance of Stow-on-the-Wold.

Stow-on-the-Wold is well known for its many cosy pubs, specialist shops, art galleries and excellent restaurants. The pocket maps we provide show the many lovely walks from the door that can be enjoyed in this Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Just 4 miles down the road is the award-winning Daylesford Organic Farm and Farmshop which runs its own dairy, bakery, butchery, organic garden, spa, cookery school and workshops in floristry, art and craft. Locally, there are good facilities for golfing, horse riding and fishing, wonderful National Trust properties and gardens, famous historic buildings such as Blenheim Palace and Warwick Castle, and within 6 miles is TV presenter Adam Henson's Cotswold Farm Park.

Daisy Bank all on one level, has a delightfully light and airy living room. The master bedroom has 6' four-poster bed, flat screen TV and en suite shower room.

The Oxbow is a cosy single storey cottage with four-poster bedroom. It has an open plan living area with large patio doors to enjoy the beautiful Cotswold views.

Swingletree is a romantic cottage, all on one level, with four-poster bedroom and very inviting patio and lawned area.

Fishers Cottage is the wing of the farmhouse with double bedroom and bathroom upstairs and single en suite bedroom downstairs. The cottage has its own drive, parking, front door and patio.
