Quirky lodges, private hot tubs, five minutes' walk to sandy Blue Flag beach

Relaxing family fun time

Spacious lounge with comfy sofas

Secluded lodges with grass roofs

With eco elegance, Rosehill offers you luxurious accommodation with award-winning standards of cleanliness, in a stunning location, right on the Cornish coast.

Set within a sheltered woodland valley in the small coastal village of Porthtowan, right at the heart of Cornwall's historic tin mining country and ideally located to explore everything Cornwall has to offer. Our location is superb. A short five minutes' walk gets you to our local beach, village shops, bars and restaurants – park up, relax, and leave your car behind. Our beach is sandy and has been awarded Blue Flag status for exceptional quality and cleanliness, with great surf for the more adventurous and plenty of rock pools for the little ones. After a fantastic day on the beach enjoy the convenience of an outside drench shower on your lodge to wash away the sand and salt. Lodges have grass roofs and solar panels and have been sustainably built using materials locally sourced in Cornwall.

Experience great walks along the coast path, with the dramatic Atlantic coastline right on your doorstep, and storm watching during the winter months feeling the sea-spray on your face. Wow! At the end of the day relax in your own personal hot tub spa, dine al fresco and stargaze from the shelter of your glass covered decking. Be amazed by the incredible birdsong that surrounds your lodge. Finally, snuggle up in luxurious super king-size beds or watch the flames dancing lazily around in your log burner. We look forward to welcoming you to Rosehill for an exceptional holiday experience.
