The Great House, top French restaurant

The Guildhall, historic Lavenham

Tudor oak beams and a log fire complement modern luxury, king-size beds, double bathtub and stylish furnishings. In addition, Lavenham is England's finest medieval village.

Lavenham has over 200 listed historic buildings, including Blaize Barn, plus top rated restaurants, great pubs and a wide range of shops, all within a 2 minute walk.

Blaize Barn comfortably sleeps 4 in two double bedrooms but is popular for couples. It is consistently rated 'excellent' by guests.

Short breaks are particularly popular in the winter months when guests value the log fires, local walks and excellent village pubs and restaurants. A particular attraction is the nationally acclaimed French restaurant, 'The Great House'. You can stay in Lavenham for a week, never move the car and yet eat in a different restaurant each night ... foodie heaven!

2, 3 or 4 night short breaks as well as a week (or more) long stays are available at all times of year. Arrival is on a Friday or Monday.

Blaize Barn is an historic Grade II listed building and is around 500 years old. It has been impeccably restored and features lots of original oak beams, a log fire, Sky TV (42" screen), power shower, free WiFi, an oak kitchen with granite worktops, private off road parking, a private garden and a welcome pack. One of the bedrooms and the bathroom is on the ground floor.

Day trips include historic Bury St Edmunds, the Suffolk Coast, the Viking burial site at Sutton Hoo and Cambridge ... but leave time to amble through Lavenham.
