

Southwold Barn

Stylish conversion in central Cotswolds

Southwold Barn kitchen/dining room

Double bedroom

A conversion of traditional cart barns, in the village of Compton Abdale.

A stylish conversion, light, airy, open plan with views to glorious countryside. On the ground floor is a large vaulted drawing room with original stonework, beams and large log burner. The kitchen opens onto an open plan dining area. Two double bedrooms are on the ground floor, these share a bathroom with walk-in shower (especially suitable for those with limited mobility). Private pretty garden with mill stream running through.

On the first floor there is a small sitting area with TV. A twin/super king-size bedroom with en suite bathroom, and a further double bedroom with en suite shower room.

Numerous award-winning pubs and restaurants locally, beautiful walks from the doorstep and lots of activities nearby.
