Heath Farm overview

Five beautiful award-winning stone cottages lovingly converted set around a stunning paved courtyard with water garden. Wonderful views. Nestled in 70 acres of private woodland and wildflower meadows.

Superior quality crafted interiors with oak panelling, exposed stone walls, solid hardwood furniture, beautiful ironwork, exposed beams, and open fires. A wealth of natural materials and furnishings. Fresh spring water straight from the tap, free firewood, complimentary flowers and cake from the farm. Scrupulously clean, these very individual havens are equipped to the finest detail for your delight and comfort.

Lavender, fresh herbs and the sound of running water as you read, dine or stroll in the terraced courtyard outside. Fabulous grounds to explore, picnic (hampers supplied) or play in with easy access to connecting footpaths. Walkers and cyclists welcome. In season, help yourself to nuts and fruits – the birds and wildlife do!

Close to good restaurants, farmers markets, farm shops, village pubs and shopping as well as to fishing, riding, sports and golf facilities. M40 access 7 miles away in Banbury. Heathrow 1½ hours, Birmingham 1 hour. Surrounded by picturesque villages. Ideal for visiting cultural and architectural sights of Oxford, Stratford, Warwick; the shopping magnet of Bicester Village, nearby to Blenheim Palace and all Cotswold attractions.

Hazelnut, Beechnut and Chestnut sleep 2, Walnut and Cobnut up to 4 whilst Chestnut and Cobnut can be linked to sleep 6. Total cottage capacity of 14 for special occasions. New website has a wealth of local information and additional photos well worth a look. We offer returning guests loyalty discount.
