Neuadd Farm Cottages

8 time winners of Wales in Bloom.

Neuadd lies just up the lane from this breathtaking National Trust coast line with its coastal paths. The farm cottages are some of the prettiest in Wales, nestling in delightful flower-filled gardens and grounds, with lots of places to sit and dream, read a book or just gaze at the views.

Our heated swimming pool is a real suntrap, with mangers full of flowers on its white walls. The views over the valley and the lake make it a very special spot for relaxing in the sun.

Younger children delight in the Wendy house whilst the older ones can enjoy the adventure playground away from the cottages.

Wander to the lake in the valley, watch the fish and ducks and make friends with our donkeys, goats, rabbits and sheep.

This is a wonderful unspoilt part of Wales, with terrific walking, sandy coves and beaches, sailing, canoeing, fishing and golf.

The little harbour town of New Quay, one time home of Dylan Thomas is just three miles away, with the Georgian town of Aberaeron, inspired by Nash, just up the coast. The university town of Aberystwyth lies 30 miles to the north and the market town of Cardigan is 12 miles to the south.

All cottages have been recently stylishly refurbished. Locally handmade oak kitchens fully equipped with stainless steel appliances, underfloor heating, fully fitted bathrooms with power showers, hot water supplied by a Baxi biomass boiler and oak furniture throughout, provide you with all modern comforts.
