

Steele's Mill

The perfect retreat in a restored corn mill

Spacious kitchen

A stunning three storey corn mill, lovingly restored by the Addisons, originally dated to 14th century, every effort made to preserve history whilst embracing all 21st century comforts.

An exceptionally well-equipped cottage nestling on the banks of the River Lyvennet, fully equipped kitchen/dining room with underfloor heating, featuring the original workings encased in glass, with range cooker and granite worktops and downstairs toilet. On the first floor there are oak wooden floors throughout with large relaxing sitting room with gas log fire, opening to a balcony complete with patio table and chairs, perfect for studying the local wildlife. There are two comfortable bedrooms, one king-size, one twin, both with Egyptian cotton bed linen, both with en suite facilities. Fabulous walks from the door.
