Fullerton Place Cottage

Shortflatt Tower is one of Northumberland's most beautiful and historic country houses. We offer comfortable elegance and bespoke services including quality pampering in Fullerton Place, our unique spa and hammam.

Luxury, kindness and wellbeing. It's our privilege to welcome you. Enjoy a taste of gracious country living in the luxurious comfort and tranquillity of our 13th century fortalice tower.

We have seven individually decorated large double bedrooms with views overlooking the formal garden and rolling Northumberland countryside. The Tower Keep drawing room has a vaulted ceiling, 6 foot thick walls and an open fire. The dining room has antique furnishings, striking family portraits and a woodburning stove. Also included are a cosy kitchen and living area and bathrooms with cast iron double ended roll top baths and luxurious rain showers. The Keep opens out onto an impressive stone terrace and formal walled garden.

Fullerton Place is a luxury cottage with self catering facilities, a moment's walk away from the Tower. Built in the early 1800s, this former coach house is in the old stable yard of Shortflatt Tower. The cottage features a spacious farmhouse kitchen, cosy living room with woodburning stove and four luxurious bedrooms.

The estate is surrounded by beautiful countryside, excellent walking opportunities, great cycle routes and both National Trust and English Heritage properties. We are also within short driving distance of Newcastle-upon-Tyne city centre's excellent shopping facilities and quayside galleries and Northumberland's stunning golden beaches and interesting market towns.
