Surrounded by stunning countryside we welcome you to enjoy this special smallholding tucked away in the Shropshire Hills.

Middle Farm offers a luxurious holiday experience achieving a Gold Award standard year on year. The cottages have been beautifully restored offering well-maintained and well-equipped accommodation. The smallholding is shared with our much loved rare breed British Lop pigs, Soay sheep, a mix of chickens, pick your own veg and access to a beautiful fishing lake only walking distance away. As we are situated a few miles from Church Stretton you can watch wild ponies graze on the Long Mynd, soak up the spectacular views from the Shropshire Hills, or just walk the ½ mile to our local, independent pub, with open fires, draught beer and home-cooked food. As we live on the farm we'll be here to help you find the very best places to walk your dogs, ride your bikes, fly your kites or simply discover this spectacular county. British Lop pork, including sausages and bacon and freshly laid eggs are available for guests to purchase on site.

You are also welcome to make use of the outside eating areas including our purpose built brick barbecue/ log burner under the rustic 15th century byre or the outside pavilion area, recently reclaimed for guests to use in warmer weather.

Whether you need to relax or enjoy the local walks over the hills we will do all that we can to help you enjoy a piece of this beautiful part of Shropshire.
