Pembrokeshire in style

The Lodge at East Jordeston

Fun at our play park

Barafundle Bay, world award winning

Stylish, comfortable living spaces

Spacious, chalet style bedrooms

In idyllic, peaceful countryside, 3 miles from Tenby, the 16th century former farm of East Jordeston offers a cluster of luxury, award-winning cottages in a chic, contemporary style.

Designed with architectural flair and sitting comfortably in landscaped grounds, the cottages, sleeping from 2 to 8 guests, have a clean cut, Scandinavian influence. They offer unique interesting features, open plan sociable living spaces, top quality furnishings and fittings and an atmosphere of comfort, peace and relaxation.

There are woodburners, toasty warm floors with underfloor heating and airy, chalet style bedrooms with boarded walls painted in calming colours. Guests may even find a soft, snug blanket on the sumptuous beds, woven from the wool of the resident flock of rare breed Jacob sheep.

Five cottages offer the luxury of their own private Finnish saunas, some have delightful sun rooms and all have private terraces with panoramic views over rolling fields.

East Jordeston is an ideal base from which to discover the delights of Pembrokeshire. Award-winning, golden sandy beaches like Barafundle and Broad Haven South and the picturesque harbour town of Tenby are close by, with some of the most dramatic scenery of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park only a few miles away.

Impressive seabird breeding colonies can be seen at Stack Rocks and Skomer Island and the glimpse of a newborn seal pup in a secluded bay is a sight to be cherished.

There are activities, attractions and adventures of all kinds, or if you prefer, simply slow down to the relaxed pace of life and enjoy Pembrokeshire's peace and tranquillity.
