

Benallack

Stylish cottages in an idyllic rural location

Dairy bedroom

Summerhouse and lake

Benallack is a range of traditional stone barns, dating partly from 1600, in private grounds and beautiful countryside near the historic village of Grampound.

Perfectly located for exploring Cornwall, between the north and south coasts, the barns are a wonderful escape for people seeking peace and quiet, yet with easy access to all corners of the county.

Two beautiful cottages, each sleeping two, are set around a Mediterranean style courtyard and surrounded by stunning four acre gardens. Tastefully decorated and furnished with country antiques, The Bullpen and The Dairy have everything you might need for a perfect break: from woodburning stoves, powerful showers, luxurious super king-size beds and fully equipped kitchens to local maps and welcome provisions. Babies in arms can also be accommodated and we welcome well-behaved dogs.
