Bell Cottage living area

Bell and Oak cottages are situated in a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty just ten minutes away from the Regency seaside town of Sidmouth.

Ideally located for exploring the Jurassic Coast, the cottages were once a barn and are of identical design, carpeted throughout with vaulted ceilings and exposed beams. There is a comfortably furnished open plan kitchen/living/dining area on the first floor maximising the stunning views. The two ground floor bedrooms, one double and one with twin beds, with en suite bathrooms. Both cottages have parking for two cars and a small garden area with seating.
