Bulverton House

On the rural edge of Sidmouth, yet just one mile from the Jurassic Coast and the centre of this beautiful regency town with its fine gardens, beaches and attractions.

Our unique 5 Star self-catering suites (with names inspired by famous Sidmouth residents) are fully equipped and furnished to a luxurious standard, each with their own private garden or courtyard garden. With super high energy efficiency and insulation achieved in all our accommodation, we are able to offer a highly competitive tariff structure.

The Delderfield Suite is based on the site of a former cider press with some truly charming cob features still visible to the interior walls, this together with the vaulted ceilings in the living areas form a characterful self-catering suite. One bed. Friday changeover.

The Orlando Suite is based on the site of a former milking parlour with some of the old charming brickwork features still visible to the interior walls; this, with the exposed roof beams from a more recent adaptation of the building give much character to this open plan, self-catering suite. One bed. Saturday changeover

The Sampson Suite is based on the site of a former farm store and stables, vaulted ceilings in the living areas help to form a characterful self-catering suite. Two bed. Friday changeover.

Bulverton House is not suitable for children and does not allow pets or smoking. Our website has further details/floor plans and videos. We are open all year round. Do not hesitate to drop me an email to clarify any questions you may have.
