

Lemington Lodge

Spectacular hideaway close to the coast

Nestled into the hillside

This spectacular 5 Star Gold award-winning retreat was designed to complement the unique setting whilst maximising the breathtaking views of the Cheviot Hills.

The large open plan living area features a huge panoramic sliding door which opens onto the stone terrace. Comfortable sofas provide seating around the Morso woodburning stove and wall mounted television, perfect for unwinding after an exciting day exploring Northumberland. For your convenience there is a library stocked with books and board games for all ages. Three en suite bedrooms open into the gardens, all with super king-size beds. Bathrooms have power showers and are stocked with Penhaligon toiletries.

Locally produced food hampers, private catering, in-house spa treatments, horse riding, private guided walks and bicycle hire are available through the cottage concierge service.
