Our boutique collection of award-winning luxury cottages occupy a stunning river valley setting in the Northumberland National Park offering unrivalled seclusion and tranquillity.

This idyllic situation is the perfect hideaway, great for walking/cycling, and situated inside the UK's largest Dark Sky Park, ideal for stargazing. Ingram is a very accessible base from which to explore this historic county with its wealth of castles and historic houses, market towns of Rothbury and Alnwick are a short drive, and just beyond lay the beautiful open sandy beaches and coves forming the Northumberland coastline.

Family owned and run these cottages nestle in secluded mature grounds beside an 18th century rectory. Most are detached sleeping 2 and 6 guests and offer log fires, full heating, and have their own private gardens with teak/iron furniture, large flatscreen TVs with Freeview, DVD player, direct dial in phone and free WiFi.

Experience Trysha's amazing pizzas – baked in an Italian wood-fired pizza oven and delivered personally to your cottage! A special home-made Arrival Meals service is offered and also available various evenings during your stay. There's also an interesting choice of country inns and restaurants in the surrounding area and friendly Ingram Café is three minutes' walk away.

Well stocked Guest Information Lounge for planning trips. Secure bicycle storage.

Stables Cottage, Honeysuckle, Bluebell Byre sleep 4, Barley Mill sleeps 6 and all have two bath/shower rooms. Ideal for families and couples, these delightful stone cottages occupy a mature setting adjacent to the picturesque 11th century church of St Michael and look out towards the Cheviot foothills.

Coach House and Dovecote sleep 2 – romantic cosy cottages for couples, characterful and well appointed having all mod cons.

Gate Lodge and The Retreat sleep 2 are the new first class of luxury self catering, being especially designed and built with your complete relaxation and comfort in mind – exclusively for couples – one with an infrared sauna room and quality hot tub outside, the other its own private heated swim spa/hydrotherapy pool actually inside the property – both offer the perfect choice for celebrating any occasion – especially honeymoons.
