The historic Trelowarren Estate is 1,000 acres of peace and tranquillity. Explore historical turrets and caves, wallow in the heated ozone pool, or just relax in your luxury cottage.

Daphne Du Maurier described Trelowarren as 'a jewel in the palm of your hand', the estate was mentioned in the Domesday book; and the Vyvyan family has been in residence at Trelowarren for over six centuries. The mile long meandering drive brings you in past the ancient evergreen Holm oaks and up to the Grade I listed house and the heart of the estate.

Our self-catering luxury houses are dotted through the estate and are a successful blend of traditional character with the comfort of the modern world. The ecological houses are wonderfully light and airy with lots of space inside and out. They are heated centrally by our biomass boiler, fed by Trelowarren timber. All of our cottages are dog friendly and we can provide cots, highchairs, stair gates and babysitters when required.

The Walled Garden Spa provides a tranquil space to relax and have a luxury spa treatment, or you can enjoy a swim in the large outdoor heated (27 degrees) ozone pool, surrounded by olive trees in the sheltered south facing gardens, or burn off some energy in the fitness centre or on the tennis court.

The award-winning New Yard Restaurant has a comfortable relaxed atmosphere providing the perfect setting to unwind with a coffee, drink cocktails at the bar, or enjoy a wonderful lunch or evening meal prepared from fresh local ingredients. You don't even have to drive to enjoy incredible food and wine or an informal family evening in the pizza shop.

The Lizard is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and with over 14 beaches and the Helford river within a ten minute drive, adults and children are burdened by choice; this is a paradise for those who love Cornwall.

The team at Trelowarren look forward to welcoming you for a treasured family holiday, a celebration or anniversary, or a bespoke unique holiday because you're looking for somewhere very special.
