South side of the house

Monnington House is a real gem – set at the end of a 'no through road' on the edge of a family farm is the farmhouse and across the field is The Cider Mill.

They are surrounded by acres of cider orchards in the Wye Valley. The river Wye is within a 10 minute walk.

They have bags of charm and it is a place for all seasons – cosy up by the woodburners on a cold winters evening and enjoy crispy, misty walks or lap up the huge gardens and south facing barbeque terraces when the sun comes out.

Both are luxurious with spacious accommodation with high quality beds and linens and have well appointed kitchens. Each bedroom has its own bathroom giving that bit of added extravagance and privacy making your stay really special.

On site there is plenty to do – a game of table tennis, pool or table football, a football match on the playing field or badminton on the garden. A walk from the door through the farm where you can join the Wye Valley Walk and head for a choice of pubs!

If you fancy getting out why not explore the Brecon Beacons or canoe down the Wye. Mountain biking and quad-biking are popular and a visit to the Rare Breeds Farm down the road and Shepherds Ice Cream Parlour in Hay is a must if you have children.

For celebrations and holidays caterers make a real difference producing excellent local food at a reasonable cost.

Wonderful memories are made here.
