A finalist in VisitEngland's Self Catering Property of the Year – The Chestnuts, and its award-winning sister cottage Culls are exceptional properties, located in beautiful Cotswold villages.

Close to historic Burford and Lechlade-on-Thames, they are ideal bases to explore the highlights of the Cotswolds as well as Oxford, Stratford, Warwick or Bath.

Our stone cottages (Culls was built in 1670) have been restored to preserve the traditional and lavished with contemporary luxuries to bring them bang up to date. The stone floors, oak beams and inglenook fireplaces exude old world charm, whilst stylish furnishings, original art and modern conveniences make them exciting places to stay. All seasons in the glorious Cotswolds are magnificent, and these luxury holiday cottages are equipped for all weathers. Underfloor heating, roaring log fires and goose down duvets keep you toasty in winter. Our landscaped private gardens have numerous places to sit, relax, barbecue, dine or play and are a haven in spring and summer.

Kitchens are equipped for the keenest chef, with cookery books, Global knives and espresso machine. Enjoy the Bose iPod docks, digital radios and 4K televisions. Three double bedrooms at Culls Cottage (one of which is downstairs) and four at The Chestnuts means we sleep up to six or eight. Bathrooms have both drenching showers and double-ended baths for a spa-ike feel. There is off street parking at both cottages. Each village has a terrific food pub within walking distance and we have some of the most acclaimed dining pubs in the Cotswolds within a short drive.
