Danby Dale in the heart of the glorious North York Moors National Park

Beacon View 30ft sitting room

Dale View – Design Award winning barn

Superb kitchen for entertaining

Stunning barns, amazing location

Glorious National Park views

Two beautiful 'National Park Design Award' winning Grade II listed Yorkshire barns enjoying their own private enclosed ¼ acre gardens and picture perfect views.

Set in peaceful Danby Dale between the pretty villages of Castleton and Danby at the heart of the glorious North York Moors National Park. A land of purple heather, enchanting green forests, plunging river valleys and rugged Yorkshire heritage coastline. The perfect retreat for family or friends seeking adventures, amazing wildlife, walking, cycling, cosy local pubs and delicious tea rooms.

Enjoy Whitby's sandy beaches, quaint higgledy piggledy fishing villages of Staithes and Robin Hood's Bay. Taste the freshest fish dishes, try whale watching, rock-pooling – look out for Dracula!

Stroll around Helmsley, Malton and Pickering, quintessential Yorkshire market towns offering boutique shopping, deli's and castles. Make a day for the historic city of York.

A couple only, looking for a superb space to call home, can take advantage of our year-round 10% discount.

Beacon View. Spacious vaulted 30ft long family sitting room with cosy underfloor heating. Easy access ground floor en suite master bedroom. Rated M1NAS. Private child-friendly enclosed garden – ideal for croquet! Fantastic undercover party patio with lighting, power points and barbecue – an al fresco dining room.

Dale View. Quirky, stylish, light and airy. This Design Award winning eco conversion where ancient meets modern is both unique and spacious. Two private south facing walled gardens with barbecue, covered patio. The Farmhouse kitchen's antique elm table seats 12.

For special family gatherings book the barns together and have the 'best of both'.
