

Little Hare Barns

A barn in the Brecon Beacons National Park

The Barn

On Sugar Loaf slopes, with walks from the front door, sleeping seven in four pretty bedrooms over two barns.

With three bathrooms, a large well-equipped kitchen and spacious lounge with woodburner and cosy armchairs. Oak boards or ceramic tiles throughout and oil central heating.

Great location for walking between September and March during the day, return to cook at home or eat out. Early morning or evening walks during summer and enjoy lazy days. A great place for friends or families to stay, with lots of room to prepare food in the kitchen. Welsh lounge with new oak beams and boards, balloon log basket, shearing bench and ale table.

Local shopping Crickhowell or Abergavenny, cycle routes on network of local roads leading to Hereford over Black Mountains, Hay and Crasswall.
