Glorious Eskdale – an awe inspiring location.

Described by the famous Lakeland authors, John Ruskin and Alfred Wainwright, as 'The Gateway to Paradise' and 'A perfect Arcadia in the hills – the finest of all valleys'.

Seven extremely special 500 year old Grade II listed Elizabethan cottages enchantingly set in the delightful village of Boot.

Charming cottages, full of character, set beside a quaint 17th century packhorse bridge over the tumbling Whillan Beck. Romantic cottages for two ideal for honeymoons, larger cottages perfect for families and groups. Beautiful walled gardens and riverside paddock for picnics and barbecues. Sky TV with all sports, movies and children's channels.

Delicious food and Cumbrian real ales!

Two pubs 100 and 200 yards away – enjoy excellent home-made food and fine Cumbrian ales after a long day on the fells! Sample delicious Lakeland ice creams from the village shop or request one of a choice of welcome hampers available – try Cumberland sausages from the Queen's appointed supplier. Chocolates, flowers and champagne for special occasions.

Highest, deepest, steepest, oldest!

Within walking distance are: Scafell Pike, England's highest mountain; dramatic Wastwater, its deepest lake (voted Britain's Best View); Hardknott Pass, its steepest road; and Boot Mill, its oldest working water mill.

The finest walks in the Lake District!

Get 'far from the madding crowd' and enjoy not using your car all week in this tranquil corner of the Lakes. From the cottage door, hike up England's highest mountains or enjoy countless gentle walks beside rivers, through woods and meadows, passing one of the Valley's five cosy inns for refreshments.

Plenty to see and do nearby for all!

Steam trains, sandy beaches, golf courses, climbing, canoeing, pony trekking, the Eskdale cycleway, fishing, country houses, castles, gardens, waterfalls, Roman ruins, Neolithic stone circles, and majestic landscapes to paint. Swim in the crystal clear River Esk or waterfall plunge pool in Boot, and walk to Stanley Force waterfall, 'Lakeland's Loveliest'.
