Romantic luxury cottage – glorious tranquillity, stunning scenery, wildlife

Culdee Cottage

Relax by the pond

Breakfast in the garden

A world away from the busyness of everyday, experience the peace and grandeur of the mountains and the glens; a restful retreat for anyone and a perfect hideaway for couples.

Scampering red squirrels twenty feet from your door step, colourful goldfinches and spotted woodpeckers at the bird table, a hare loping across the lawn, and, if you are lucky, maybe a wandering deer or a mercurial stoat to surprise you: many of our guests come just to relax and enjoy the wildlife in our tranquil three-quarter acre garden. However, if you want to stretch your legs to recharge your batteries, there are opportunities for walking, cycling, skiing, fishing, golf, riding, or even bagging a munro.

With many excellent golf courses within a few miles, and Gleneagles, St Andrews and Carnoustie each an hour away, this is a golfer's paradise. Half a mile from the cottage door you can join the CATERAN Trail, made famous years ago by bands of cattle thieves but now offering the walker peaceful breath-taking landscapes. There are plenty of options for lake and river fishing, including the River Isla running alongside our garden, and for winter activity the Glenshee ski slopes are only twenty miles to the north.

Scone Palace and Glamis Castle are not far, and there are plenty of museums, art galleries, concert halls and theatres in Perth, Dundee, Pitlochry and Edinburgh. The newly-completed Dundee V&A is not to be missed.

Spacious well-equipped kitchen/ dining/sitting room; ground floor twin bedroom; wet room; upstairs en suite bedroom with super king-size bed.
