Set in fabulous countryside yet at the heart of one of Northumberland's prettiest villages, this stylish cottage, a cock-stride from the Tankerville Arms, is the perfect retreat for two.

New to the market and redeveloped to 5 Star Gold award standard (accreditation awaited), Mill Cottage comprises a spacious living room with log burner and Sky TV; a fabulous Mowlem-bespoke dining kitchen with Rangemaster; and, at first floor, a delightful bedroom with en suite bathroom and shower. Heated kitchen and bathroom floors supplement central heating.

Externally, the kitchen leads to a secluded dining terrace and, beyond, to landscaped and more informal gardens. A steep path and steps lead down to the Eglingham Burn and abundant wildlife. Eglingham is approximately 6 miles from and midway between Alnwick, with its famous gardens and castle, and Wooler, the gateway to the Cheviots and the Northumberland National Park offering spectacular walking and cycling.

Wonderful walks and views are also available directly from the village, without the need to drive, as is the Tankerville Arms: a true 'local pub' offering good food.

The Northumberland coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with unparalleled beaches at Bamburgh, Alnmouth and Warkworth and the UK's finest collection of castles, is also nearby as are numerous gardens open to the public, superb coastal and inland golf courses, commercial shooting estates and fishing.

Mill Cottage aims to provide both a great base for a wide range of activities and the perfect bolthole for those preferring to crash out without having to leave the village.
