Luxury shepherd's huts in a stunning location

View south from Bluegrass terrace

Ryegrass

A luxurious bedroom

A canal barge window

A tranquil location – with a view

Our luxurious shepherd's huts are a perfect haven for two adults of any age!

Beautifully located in a south facing wildflower meadow, our Hideaways are built to house building standards – unlike most shepherd's huts!

The 360 acre estates is teeming with wildlife ... the walks in the 40 acre semi-ancient beech woods or to Meg's Lake are magical.

The Hideaways, which are approached on a woodchip path, are 32 feet long and have three rooms and a westerly facing terrace. It's a short walk on a woodchip path to the Spa – one may walk there in one's slippers! The Hideaways have mains drainage and electricity – there is WiFi. It is lovely and warm and suitable for year-round occupation.

The bedroom has a luxurious 5 foot double bed and a Smart TV; from your bed you can look through a large window towards the beech wood and the sea – which is eight miles away. The adjoining bathroom has a shower, loo and basin. The living area has a combined microwave/oven, a halogen hob, a fridge and Belfast sink and masses of utensils. There is a Bose Bluetooth speaker and a digital radio.

Heating and hot water are provided by a combi boiler and radiators and there is also a log burning stove – everything is provided in the cost ... there are no extras.

The Hideaways are available for two and three night weekend breaks or two and four night mid week breaks ... or why not stay for a week ... the location is glorious!
