Home Farm Cottages

Escape from the pressures of everyday life in this tranquil setting in rural Somerset, situated at the foot of the Mendips – an approved 'Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty'.

Ideally situated for walking, cycling and visiting the many nearby attractions. The area offers something for everyone, including National Trust locations, Bath, Longleat, Wells and Glastonbury. Cheddar's famous gorge and caves are just 5 miles away. Alternatively, walk from our doorstep up the Mendips and on to Crook Peak and experience one of the top 10 views in England.

Granary Cottage sleeps 6, and includes a ground floor bedroom and bathroom as well as a further two bedrooms and shower room upstairs. Dogs welcome.

Fry's Barn sleeps 4 in two bedrooms (one king and one super king), with two bath/shower rooms. Dogs welcome. All rooms on the ground floor with two steps inside.

Hayloft sleeps 4 and has a super king-sized bed in the main bedroom, plus a fully enclosed garden with views across the Loxton valley. Dogs welcome.

Bakehouse is a Grade II listed building and sleeps 2. Ideal for a quiet and/or romantic getaway. The original fireplace with woodburning stove is perfect for cool evenings. Private garden. Dog free.

Scrumpy Cottage sleeps 2 and dogs are welcome. This cottage is on one floor, with a super king-sized bed.

Home Farm has a guest laundry (washing machine and tumble dryer), and bicycle storage. All gardens are enclosed and there are 2 acres of fenced fields to exercise and play in – or just enjoy the views. Garden recliners, barbecue, games and books available.
