A stunning shepherd's hut commanding unspoilt views of Lower Teesdale and a chic interior lovingly created for you to enjoy. A perfect retreat for two.

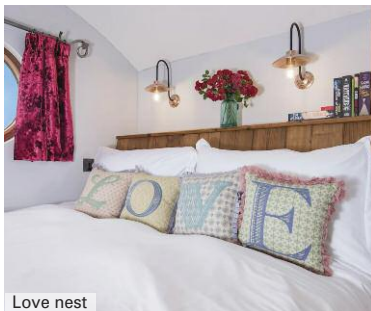

Set in the beautiful quiet countryside of the Tees Valley straddling County Durham and North Yorkshire lies a traditional-looking shepherd's hut which blends seamlessly with the landscape. It has its own parking area at the rear and in front a delightful south facing private garden with lawned area and decking. Here you can relax in the traditional deck chairs or dine al fresco taking in the views.

Stepping through the stable door you enter a surprisingly spacious interior which possesses all the essentials one would expect from a Premier Cottage-quality cottage but encased in a cosy intimate space.

A luxury two-seater sofa occupies pride of place where one can snuggle in front of the Hobbit woodburning stove.

The well-appointed kitchen area includes a Neff hob and combined grill and conventional/microwave oven plus a fridge and all the essential utensils one would expect. This is all topped out by a beautiful granite worktop which extends into a breakfast bar where one can dine looking out on to an oasis of calm tranquillity containing fields and hedgerows.

Through the sliding designer glass door, the en suite incorporates a luxurious spacious shower and towel warmer. At the opposite end of the hut sits the cosy elevated king-size bed with eye level windows and HD TV which can also be swung into the lounge area.
