Porthcurno to Logan Rock

Shepherd's Hut living area

With stunning views and a secluded private hot tub, the delightfully luxurious Boskenna Shepherd's Hut offers you a truly unique experience.

This gorgeous property is situated in a private garden, overlooking farmland on the south coast of the Land's End peninsula, in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and Heritage Coast. You can see the sea which is only a few minutes' walk down to the South West Coast Path leading towards Land's End to the west and the fishing village of Mousehole to the east.

Boskenna Shepherd's Hut has a fully equipped kitchen, en suite bathroom with a large drench shower, a king-size bed with crisp fresh linen that can be accessed from both sides at all times. There is underfloor heating and double glazing to complement the log burner, which ensures warmth and comfort, making it a truly all year round destination.

West Cornwall is a stunning part of the country with glorious coastal walking, moorland trekking or just relaxing in a pub in one of the little coastal villages. The Minack Theatre is set into the cliffs at Porthcurno nearby. Experience a show sat under the moon and stars whilst gazing out to sea and even catch a glimpse of a pod of dolphins swimming by. St. Michael's Mount is a fairytale castle steeped in Cornish myth and legends in Mount's Bay and coastal towns and villages like St. Ives and Penzance are all less than half an hour away.

Boskenna – this is Poldark country, Rosamund Pilcher country and the location for 'Summer in February'.
