There are many fabulous amenities here at Woodyhyde Courtyard including indoor pool, sauna, tennis court, games room and gym that guests will always be entertained any day of the year.

Occupying a rural position within a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the heart of the Purbecks, Woodyhyde Courtyard is a large single storey holiday property created from converted barns. There are six bedrooms, five bath/shower rooms, a large beamed living/dining with a woodburning stove and vaulted ceiling and a superbly equipped modern kitchen. The leisure facilities are a particular feature with indoor heated swimming pool, sauna and gym. The games room has table tennis, pool table and table football. This is excellent walking country. Four footpaths cross beautiful open countryside from where they link in to a magnificent network of paths including the spectacular South West Coast Path just 3 miles away. The historic stone village of Corfe Castle is just 1½ miles away where visitors will find the ruins of a National Trust Castle and a collection of shops, pubs and restaurants. The scenic Swanage Steam Railway passes through the valley close to Woodyhyde – a trip aboard is bound to be a memorable experience. Swanage Bay, with its sandy beach, is just 4 miles away and the magnificent countryside and sandy beaches of Studland Peninsula just 7 miles distant. The coast is a wonderful mix of cliff and beaches being part of the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site. WiFi throughout property. Parking for six cars. Tennis court is shared with owners, guests have priority.
