Your view!

Your holiday relaxation begins the minute you step into this luxurious apartment, with an unbeatable, panoramic view across the bay from St Ives to Godrevy lighthouse. Open the balcony doors from the welcoming living room and be mesmerised by the palm fringed, pearly golden sand and glistening, clear turquoise water of the (Blue Flag) Carbis Bay beach reached by a short walk through the tropical, landscaped gardens.

Your most comfortable holiday

Your apartment has been furnished to the highest standard with beautiful interiors including Hypnos beds, Italian leather furniture, White Company bedding and towels. There is a fully integrated and exceptionally well-equipped kitchen and a spectacular range of large UHD TVs and other audio visual equipment, all here for your comfort to enjoy in this idyllic setting. Visit the guest page on our website for impartial reviews.

Your accommodation

The 34 foot super king-size bedroom which takes up the whole of the upper level, has an incredible sea view and boasts its own en suite, living area with electric recliners, and kitchenette. The second bedroom comprises twin beds with sea view and en suite bathroom with rain shower. Both these bedrooms boast the view and sound of the sea! The third bedroom is a king-size double bedroom and there is a third family shower room with steam shower.

Your local area

The scenic branch line train will take you to St Ives, renowned for its beautiful light, art galleries, the Tate St Ives and cobbled streets. Walk the coast path, enjoy the water sports facilities available on the beach, play golf, cycle, horse riding on the beach at Marazion, visit St Michael's Mount or Porthcurno, an oasis of stunning natural beauty with the world famous Minack Theatre. One of the most scenic drives in Britain takes you along the winding road from St Ives to St Just. Visit one of the alluring gardens, as the county's climate allows for a plethora of unusual and sub-tropical plants and flowers. On the stunning Penwith Peninsula, no two days will be the same.
