The 'Cornish born' Nancarrow family have been welcoming guests to Poltarrow Farm for over thirty years and are delighted to invite you to discover it for yourself.

Up a tree-lined drive positioned within 45 acres of beautiful rolling countryside, 6 cottages set around a courtyard with ample parking await your arrival.

Converted from original farm buildings each cottage has its own individual charm and has been designed with family living in mind. The kitchens have everything you need to rustle up a family feast – don't fancy cooking – then a local company provide scrumptious home-made meals delivered to your door.

Two of the cottages are suitable for our less able guests. When baby comes too, we provide a long list of baby equipment to lighten your load. Not forgetting our four-legged friends, we welcome a well-behaved pet in some of the cottages.

Excellent facilities include indoor heated swimming pool, sports barn, soft play room as well as an outdoor enclosed play area.

When it comes to filling little lungs with fresh Cornish air, children can help feed the farm animals, follow a farm trail to meet the ducks or have a go at fun fishing.

Poltarrow Farm is perfectly placed to discover all of Cornwall – explore beaches, picturesque villages, galleries and museums, top notch eateries, historic castles and houses, iconic attractions like the Eden Project and the Lost Gardens of Heligan plus a wealth of walks, watersports and cycle trails – all within a 15-20 minute drive.
