Welcome to Ashford Farm, just 3 miles from Ludlow, described by John Betjeman as 'the loveliest town in England'.

South Shropshire can inspire you whatever your interest. The local countryside is outstanding, providing some of the best walks you could wish for, but there's so much more: fine dining, good country pubs, great cafés, independent shops, and a brewery! Ludlow Castle dates from 1086, so there's history in abundance. With the River Teme, the black and white architecture and St Laurence's Church, the 'Cathedral of the Marches', Ludlow has the lot!

Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty: Clee Hills, Clun Valley, Wenlock Edge, Stiperstones, Long Mynd, The Wrekin.

Gardens: Hampton Court, Stockton Bury, Hergest Croft.

National Trust: Croft Castle and Ambrey, Berrington Hall, Brockhampton Estate, Hanbury Hall, Attingham Park, Dudmaston Hall and the unmissable Powys Castle.

English Heritage: Stokesay Castle, Witley Court & gardens, Wenlock Priory, Wroxeter Roman City, Boscobel House.

Attractions: Acton Scott Working Farm and Museum, Ironbridge Gorge – a world heritage site, West Midland Safari Park and Severn Valley Railway.

The Old Bull Pen. Sleeps 6 (5 Star Gold). Luxury accommodation on one level. South facing front courtyard. Rear lawn and patio, overlooking stream, pond and Dingle. Three en suite bedrooms.

Well Meadow. Sleeps 4 (4 Star Gold). Central farm location, enjoying total tranquillity. Views across fields to Clee Hill. Both bedrooms en suite.

Threshers. Sleeps 5 (4 Star Gold) with a conservatory overlooking its own garden. In a conservation area edging our farmland.

We have lots of return visitors, please check our reviews on the website.
