Forming part of the Bolitho Estate, Trewidden is a resplendent Grade II manor house offering beautifully appointed and spacious accommodation ideally located in the heart of West Cornwall.

Still used by the Bolitho Family, this much-loved family home is kept in immaculate condition with wonderful original features such as the oak-panelled dining room, large, bright and airy reception rooms but with convenient modern facilities such as the outdoor hot shower, perfect for washing off sandy children and dogs after a day surfing on the beach.

Children also love the games/TV room set aside for them, and the eight bedrooms sleeping up to 15 (sleeps 10 option also available) with a flexible configuration of double and twin beds are incredibly spacious and comfortable.

Dogs have acres of space to explore Trewidden as our guests are free to wander through and enjoy the tranquillity of the adjacent Trewidden Garden, one of the Great Gardens of Cornwall, or retreat back to the house for a barbeque in the tranquil private grounds whilst taking in the superb views across Mounts Bay.

The complimentary housekeeping service on weekday mornings ensures everyone can relax, leaving more time to explore West Cornwall. Easily reached from Trewidden are a plethora of sandy beaches, footpaths including the South West Footpath, the Minack Theatre, St Michael's Mount, St Ives to name just a few.

The dining room, easily sitting up to 30 is the perfect room for parties, or larger wedding parties may prefer the front lawn as a glorious setting for a wedding reception.
