Hammoon Manor Barn – 5 Star Gold, listed barn conversion, located in the heart of Thomas Hardy's Dorset.

Surrounded by gardens, and forming part of the historic Hammoon Manor – one of the largest thatched Manor Houses in England – the Barn, with original art throughout and open beams, has been lovingly restored, providing a place of contemporary luxury, charm, and character 'Far from the Madding Crowd'.

Just 2½ hours from central London, Hammoon is the perfect base to discover the beauty and history of Hardy's Wessex, and the surrounding area including the World Heritage Sites of Stonehenge, the Jurassic Coast, Longleat, Sherborne Abbey and Castle, Shaftesbury, Dorchester, Salisbury Cathedral, Bath and much more! Or, just enjoy our walks, or relax and do nothing.

Hammoon comprises two 'discreetly interconnected' barns sleeping eight adults in four bedrooms – three en suite (five beds). All living areas have internet-enabled TVs and Bluetooth audio systems, and there is high-speed Wi-Fi throughout. Woodburners and underfloor heating ensure it is always snug and cosy all year round.

The Barn has been designed to accommodate groups of eight, as well as smaller groups of four. As for country pursuits, we have clay pigeon shooting close by, and we are happy to accommodate guns and dogs in our kennels (but best to enquire in advance). Whether you stroll along the River Stour, (we can provide a fishing rod but no fish guaranteed!), visit Hammoon's 13th-century church (that never closes), or enjoy the hot tub or a barbecue, you are guaranteed the warmest of welcomes.
