Ladybower reservoir, in the Peak District National Park

In the former pump house for Ladybower Reservoir the building sits in a glorious part of the Peak District National Park amidst wonderful scenic walking country. Nature outside, luxury inside.

Against a magnificent backdrop of some of the most stunning scenery in the Peak District, the Upper Derwent reservoir area is considered by many to be the jewel in the Peak District's crown.

These 5 Star apartments are personally cared for by the resident owners. Our multi award winning country inn, The Yorkshire Bridge Inn, is just across the road. Close to many Peak District attractions including Chatsworth, Bakewell, Castleton and Buxton. The stunning reservoirs are on your doorstep with their visitor centre and fascinating museum.

Bridge Suite Apartment – sleeps 6. A superb spacious first floor apartment featuring a huge window from which to enjoy views across the valley. The well appointed kitchen opens to the large sitting/dining room. With two double bedrooms and one twin, the apartment can sleep up to six. Two bedrooms are en suite and there is also a family bathroom.

Bridgewater Apartment – sleeps 4. A stylish two bedroom lower ground floor apartment. The contemporary kitchen opens to the sitting/dining room area where French doors lead out to a patio. Both spacious double bedrooms are en suite.

Bridge Park Apartment – sleeps 4. A contemporary two bedroom lower ground floor apartment. The modern kitchen opens to the sitting/dining room area where French doors lead out to a small patio area. Both double bedrooms are en suite.
