In Lower Teesdale straddling County Durham and North Yorkshire

Granary

Cosy lounge and gas fire

Master en suite with roll top bath

It's a dogs life!

Open plan lounge/kitchen

Two luxurious barn conversions and a chic shepherd's hut, commanding unspoilt views of open rolling countryside.

We are conveniently situated within easy reach of Northern England's most beautiful scenery and historic sites, including the North Pennines, Yorkshire Dales, Durham Cathedral, Richmond, Hadrian's Wall and the Lakes. Locally there's an abundance of walking and cycling routes through peaceful lanes and quiet lime washed villages.

The Granary has open beams throughout, huge kitchen with snug area which opens on to the patio and large garden with outdoor dining and rattan sofas. A separate stylish lounge, four bedrooms and three bathrooms. Also includes a children's play area. Dogs welcome.

The Byre has a light filled interior with open beams. The kitchen and lounge are open plan with a modern and contemporary feel including a woodburning stove, overlooking open rolling fields. Four bedrooms and three bathrooms. Large garden includes children's play area. Dogs welcome.

The Shepherd's Hut surprisingly spacious interior, luxury two seater sofa with woodburning stove, a well appointed kitchen area where one can dine looking out on to an oasis of calm tranquillity containing fields and hedgerows. A cosy elevated bed and through the sliding designer glass door, the en suite incorporates a luxurious spacious shower. Private outdoor lawn and decking area with garden furniture. Sorry no dogs. Please see Glamping section (page 268) for more details.
